Press Section: Italy to Austria: You have a breathing spell for awhile in the elimination rate. (Ed.-You call finishing someone off a breathing spell!???)

Berlin: Kaiser Maximilian I today condemned the Russian occupation of Norway and Sweden as intolerable. "This is," said the German Emperor, "a provocation which cannot be allowed to continue!" When asked by a reporter what was so intolerable about Russian presence in these two countries, His Imperial Majesty replied "Well, for one thing, those are Russian armies rather than German armies."

Turkey: Oct. 18, 1903, Her Majesty, Sarah F. Allen, assumed the throne today. "She walked in the path of righteousness" said she.
